TOP MODEL 2019 RE-LAUNCH CELEBRATIONS END IN STYLE WITH A SPECTACULAR FASHION WEEKEND!

Top Model, the leading UK and Worldwide fashion event and model awards celebrated the first year at their stunning new London West End venue on March 23rd and 24th with a weekend of glitz and VIP's at the iconic Amba Hotel Charing Cross on The Strand, supporting the CHILDREN with CANCER UK charity.

Geoff Cox, Executive Producer at Top Model said, "It's always a risk when an event is re-launched, especially one as successful as Top Model, but the 2019 finals were simply fabulous and a fitting way to complete our 12th season". He added, "The designers and finalists did us all proud and the audience was utterly enthralled with the highest possible standard of entertainment".

Designers Omar Mansoor, AGA Couture London, Eva Grygo, Akani, Serap Pollard, Beligi London, Louise Rose Vintage, Ashley Alexander, La Kola and Dolls of Decadence graced the runway in three spectacular shows.

CLARA LUBBE (South Africa) and KLAUDIA KOWALOWKA (Coventry) secured the international Worldwide and UK Editorial awards, with GIAA LIVVY-LAWRENCE from Wolverhampton and London based ADAM ASHFORD taking victory in the UK Commercial and Male categories respectively. The stunning line-up of winners was completed with EMANUELA BRZOZOWSKA from London and LOUISE WOODHEAD from Glasgow winning the Over 25's 26-35 and 36-45 age group titles. ZUZANNA JANKE from Poland was awarded the inaugural 'Sophie Fraser-Smith Pride & Inspiration Award' in an emotional ending to the Sunday matinee show. A full list of winners is attached as page two and three of this Press Release.

There were thirty-five additional awards presented over the weekend, notably the much-coveted annual 'Charity Public Vote' awards supporting CHILDREN with CANCER UK. The total raised from the Top Model 2019 campaign is on target to be in excess of £30K, with the total overall charity fundraising since 2010 set to pass the £215K mark. AGNES GOMES-WADE from Sevenoaks secured the overall highest number of votes, raising an amazing £3,214 in the process and winning a night for two at the Amba Charing Cross.

Top Model is not a beauty pageant and is proud of its model industry and fashion roots. Full training is given to all finalists and all of the top prizes and opportunities for the finalists and award winners are focused on the fashion, beauty and model industries. The finalist selections and results are decided by industry experts, not public voting, with top designers and brands dressing the selected finalists in professionally produced show finals.

Inspiration, Education & Motivation: Top Model is proud to be working for the betterment of young people through the Top Model 'Education Partnerships Initiative' (EPI) for schools and colleges.
